

Corporation of the City of Owen Sound

By-law No. 2023-128

A By-law to Provide for the Licence and Regulation of Businesses in the City of Owen Sound

WHEREAS section 11(2) of the Municipal Act, 2001 S.O. 2001 c.25 (the "Act") provides that municipalities may pass by-laws for the purpose of ensuring economic, social well-being of the municipality, and the health, safety and well-being of people in the municipality; and

WHEREAS section 151 of the Act provides for a system of business licences for any business wholly or partially carried on within the municipality and allows a municipality to prohibit the carrying on or engaging in the business without a licence, to refuse to grant a licence, to revoke or suspend a licence or to impose special conditions for a licence; and

WHEREAS section 445 of the Act provides that if a by-law has been contravened, the municipality may make an order requiring the person who contravened the by-law or who caused or permitted the contravention or the owner or occupier of the land on which the contravention occurred to do work to correct the contravention and that the municipality may provide that any person who contravenes such an order is guilty of an offence; and

WHEREAS section 447 of the Act provides that if an owner is convicted of knowingly carrying on or engaging in a trade, business or occupation without a licence required by a business licensing by-law, the court may order that the premises or part of the premises be closed for no longer than two years; and

WHEREAS section 447.1 of the Act provides that upon application, a Superior Court of Justice may issue an order for all or part of a premises to close if activities on the premises constitute a public nuisance which has a detrimental impact on the use and enjoyment of nearby property and the owner or occupants knew or ought to have known of the nuisance and did not take adequate steps to eliminate it; and

WHEREAS section 441 of the Act provides that the City's treasurer may give written notice of any fines imposed for the contravention of a business licensing by-law that become due and payable, the final date on which fines are payable, and if the fine remains unpaid after the final date, the fine is determined to be unpaid taxes; and

WHEREAS on September 9, 2014, the Council of The Corporation of the City of Owen Sound (the "City") passed By-law No. 2014-150 to provide for the licensing and regulation of business; and

WHEREAS on November 20, 2023, City Council passed Resolution R-231120-009 directing staff to bring forward the subject by-law for approval and to repeal By-law No. 2014-150, in consideration of staff report CR-23-086, presented to the Corporate Services Committee on November 9, 2023;

NOW THEREFORE THE COUNCIL OF THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF OWEN SOUND HEREBY ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

Part I. Part I. Short Title, Purpose and ScopeShort Title

1. This by-law may be referred to as the "Business Licensing By-law" and when so referenced includes all future amendments, unless otherwise specified.

Purpose

2. This by-law has been enacted to licence and regulate businesses to:
 - a. protect the economic well-being of the City;
 - b. prevent nuisance and maintain order in the City;
 - c. protect the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of the City; and
 - d. ensure compliance with applicable rules and regulations, including building, zoning, fire safety and public health requirements.
3. For greater clarity, this by-law has not been enacted to endorse or guarantee:
 - a. the quality of products, workmanship or services provided by the Business; or
 - b. the skills or credentials of a Business owner, operator or employee.

Scope

4. This by-law applies to every business operating in the City except:

 - a. non-payment of any fees, charges or outstanding fines;
 - b. non-compliance with an order, condition on a business licence or any provision of this by-law or any applicable by-law, Act or regulation;
 - c. as directed by Council; or
 - d. the continuation of the business poses an immediate danger to the health or safety of any person or to any property.
19. Any enforcing officer may:
 - a. enforce the provisions of this by-law:
 - b. inspect, at any reasonable time, any business which is licenced or has applied for a business licence to determine if the business complies with this by-law or any applicable by-law, Act or regulation;
 - c. issue a work order, order to discontinue activity or order to do any action or thing required to bring a business into conformity with this by-law or any applicable by-law or any Act or regulation; or
 - d. apply to a Superior Court of Justice for an order for a business to close where the conditions for public nuisance or lack of a business licence set out in the Municipal Act have been satisfied.
20. Where an enforcing officer has reasonable grounds to believe that an offence has been committed by a person, the officer may require the name, address, date of birth and proof of identity of that person, and the person shall supply the required information.

- 21. No person shall provide false information or give a false statement to an enforcing officer, employee and/or agent of the City in the lawful exercise of a power or duty under this by-law.
- 22. No person shall hinder or obstruct, nor attempt to hinder or obstruct, either directly or indirectly, an enforcing officer, employee and/or agent of the City in the lawful exercise of a power or duty under this by-law.

Penalty

- 23. Any person who contravenes the provisions of this by-law is guilty of an offense and, upon conviction, is subject to the penalty set out in the Provincial Offences Act.
- 24. For the purposes of this by-law, each day that a contravention of this by-law continues constitutes a separate and distinct offence.
- 25. In addition to any other remedy provided for in law, where all or part of a fine under this by-law remains unpaid, such fine may be added to the tax roll for property owned in whole or in part by the person upon whom the fine is imposed and collected as municipal taxes.

Part VI. Part VI. Conflict and Transition

Conflict

- 26. In the event the provisions of this by-law are inconsistent with the provisions of the Municipal Act, its regulations or any other Act, the provisions of the Act or regulation shall prevail.

Terms Severable

- 27. The terms and provisions of this by-law are severable and should any term or provision be found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be legally unenforceable, inoperative or invalid, the remainder of the by-law will continue to be in full force and effect.

Repeal

- 28. By-law No. 2014-150 is repealed.

Enactment

- 29. This by-law comes into full force and effect upon the final passing thereof at which time all by-laws, policies and resolutions that are inconsistent with the provisions of this by-law are hereby amended or repealed insofar as it is necessary to give effect to the provisions of this by-law.

FINALLY PASSED AND ENACTED this 4th day of December 2023.

Mayor Ian C. Boddy

Briana M. Bloomfield, City Clerk
