

Adam Jones

ATHLETE

One of the most decorated lacrosse players to ever come out of the Scenic City. Currently Head Coach of the Owen Sound Sr B North Stars Adam Jones played his entire minor lacrosse in the Owen Sound Minor Lacrosse program before playing Jr A. He starred for the Owen Sound Rams in Junior B where he led the league in scoring in 2006 with 94 points in 20 games. As a junior player he periodically played Sr B Lacrosse for the Owen Sound Woodsmen in 2006. He's still the only Junior B player to ever win the scoring title, rookie of the year and MVP honours in the same season. He's won two Minto Cups with the Orangeville Northmen and two Mann Cups with the Peterborough Lakers. He played in the National Lacrosse League from 2012-2020, recording 629 points in that time. He holds the NLL record for scoring points in 56 straight games.
