

James McLellan

ATHLETE

James won two OMHA Titles with Police Bantams in 1954-55 and 1955-56. The 1955 title was Owen Sound's first OMHA Championship. James was named Captain of the 1956 team.

He played Junior B Hockey with the Greys in 1956-57 to 1958-1959. In the 1958-59 season he was awarded the JD McArthur Trophy as the teams most valuable player. In 1959 Hamilton Red Wings selected James 1st overall of the OHA Junior A Hockey League. James also excelled in softball, baseball, and lacrosse but he was best at hockey where he made his name as a goal scorer. In 1962-63 he played with the McMaster Marlins who were the first winners of the University Cup.
