

Ted Abbott

ATHLETE

Ted Abbott is a three-time Canadian lacrosse champion, winning the 1982 Founders Cup Junior B national championship as well as the Presidents Cup in 1989 and 1991 – the national senior B championship. Abbott was an all-star in 1991 and MVP of the Presidents Cup tournament with 17 points in five games. Ted was a life long athlete, lacrosse player and coach. He was always a team player and was dedicated to hard work.